BY GUS MALBERT.

Young Mr. Rapp, imported from Altoona, Pa., and old Mr. Griffin, now hibernating in the city on the Dan, started out in a neck and neck race at the local lot yesterday in the second game of the present series with the Red Socke. Until the fifth lap there never was a pretiter race, both going easy, with the wischeads up in the air, and few layers willing to pick a winner between the two. But that fifth lap proved the undoing of age, for young air. Rapp secured with his trusty stick a home run, chasing in Cowan ahead of him, and the lead he thus obtained put the quietus to any further hopes of the travelers, the finish finding the score 4 to 1 in favor of young Mr. Rapp's side.

Giving proof to that grand old adage that history repeats, Joe Laughlin's tribe reversed itself and played base.

"Aving proof to that grand old addage that history repeats, Joe Laughlin's tribe reversed itself and played baseball as she is "wrote." There was no fooling about it, either. They played ball every minute, and the errorless error column tells a wonderful tale of the "comebackiveness" of these Panyillus.

derful tale of the "comebackiveness" of those Danvillians.

Griffin vs. Rapp.

Harry Griffin did not pitch a poor game. It was simply that Rapp pitched a better game. Also be it noted in passing, there was some snappy fielding behind both pitchers. Martin and Egan, though both are charged with errors—the only two chalked against the Colts—speared screamers which looked like safe swats in any league. Mattis ran around in left garden like the coit that he is and nabbed a couple headed for the bleachers, while Dobson and Cowan were just what was ordered in their respective places. And young Mr. Rapp pitched, oh! how he did heave!

Now, for a few bouqueis for Danville. Cooper at third, Laughlin at first, Frye at short and Coggins at they are ball players. It was anybody's game until the fifth, when chance. Rapp then walked Smith, probably a strategic move, for the catcher had been hitting, but nevertheless it placed men on first and second with none down. Coggins was forced to bite the dust via the strike-out route. Frye rolled on a fast one from Egan to Dobson, both runners advancing a bag on the out. Cooper hit a nasty high one out to left centre, but Wallace was under it, and Laughlin and Smith died where they were. It was a remarkable game. In only two innings did Danville get a man to second—in the sixth, when Horner scored, and in the ninth, when no ohe scored. Richmond did not get a man on second. excepting in the innings in which runs were counted. For the first four frames both clubs had exactly the same number of men up, and two hits had been made by cach side. Allocether the game was a great improvement on previous performances. The score:

NAVAL ACADEMY CREWS WILL BE IN CONTESTS

Lending Colleges and Rowing Clubs

Leading Colleges and Roving Clubs Will Take Part in Races on Schuylkili River.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 26.—Secretary of the Navy George Von L. Moyer will be a guest of the board of stewards at the ninth annual regatta of the American Rowing Association here to-morrow, when three crows from the Navai Academy will contest for honors with the crews from many leading colleges, and some of the foremost rowing clubs in the country. All of the crews entered have already arrived in this city, and the course on the Upper Schuylkili River in Fairmount Park, was crowded with visiting oarsmen.

The varsity eight of the Naval Academy will meet the Columbia College crew, which defeated them earlier in the season: the Wahnetah Boat Club of New York, said to be the fastest club eight in training, and the Harvard second varsity, in the race for the Seward's Cup. In the junior collegiate race, crews from the Naval Academy, Cornell, University of Pennsylvania, Harvard and Yale will contest for honors.

INTERCOLLEGE MEET AT HARVARD STADIUM TO-DAY

ers of the various colleges, who had hoped that to-day's preliminary trials would definitely indicate the probable winner of the thirty-sixth annual meetwinner of the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America, to be held in the Harvard stadium to-morrow, were disappointed Pennsylvania and Yale qualified fourteen men each in the sprints, hurdles, middle distance runs, and field events, and the experts would regard the finals as a duel between the two universities, were it not for the fact that Cornell, with ten men, is admittedly strong in the long distance runs.

Eight sturdy athletes from Michigan Eight sturdy athletes from Michigan won preliminary honors, especially R. R. Craig, the lightning sprinter, who won his trial heat in the 160-yard and furlong dashes, with his head turned towards his followers. Some wonderful running is expected of him to-mor-

Princeton heat out Harvard for fifth place by a single man, the former getting seven men to the Crimson's six, while Dartmouth was seventh, with four men left in the running.

The surprises of the day were the strength of Yale, and the failure of Cornell to come up to expectations.

Petersburg. Va., May 26.—The Gooders administered the first shut-out of the season to the Tars this afternoon, in a fast and snappy game. Hamilton and Starke were the slab artists, and both did well, not a base on bails being given by either, although Starke hit Sheridan twice. Hamilton, at critical points, was master of the situation. In the sixth inning, after Starke got first on Sheridan's error, and Babb and Kircher singled, he struck out Stand and Dodge, and Kercher was retired at second, on Green's inited hit. With the exception of Babb, Black Kircher, not a Tar made a hit.

The runs made'ly the Goobers were in the seventh inning, when Starke's error put Bowen on first, and he scored on Busch's two-bagger to centre, Busch going to third on Keilher's longing by the Kircher, and he scored on Hamilton's hit, over second base. The work of Busch, Bowen and Keilher for the Goobers, and Babb and Pagel, of the Gras, was the best seen on the diamolin this city this season.

Keilher was presented with a gold watch by Umpire Eckman, when he went to the mat, in the second inning, for making a hone run yesterday. The score:
